Party Room Frequently Asked Questions

- 1. Who do I call to book a birthday party
Please call (419) 782-6460 and ask for a manager.
- 2. Is there a minimum number required to book a birthday party?
We require a minimum of 7 people, which may include children and parents. Parents may stay and see the movie, but they must pay the "per person fee" (rates shown above) which includes their ticket and concessions.
- 3. How can I guarantee the movie I want will still be playing for the date I choose?
When you book your birthday party, we will discuss which movies should be available on your day. In most cases, if the movie is new, it will be showing for several weeks so there are many opportunities to see it.
- 4. I don't really plan on paying for the invitee's parents and siblings to see a movie, but I think they're going to want to stay. What should I do?
Every person who sees the movie must pay for a ticket. We recommend that you write on the invitations, "Parents and siblings are welcome to stay. The price would be the "per person fee" (listed above) and this includes the movie and concessions." That way they will know what to expect.
- 5. I'm not sure how many people are coming. Do I need to call you back once I have a final count if it's different than my original booking?
No, not if it's only a couple of kids. Just let us know when you get here your exact count so we can make sure we have seats reserved.
- 6. What if I have 7 coming to meet the minimum, but then one gets sick and can't make it, do I have to cancel?
No, you don't need to cancel. All we ask is that you pay for the child(ren) to keep the number of participants at the minimum of 7. The other children shouldn't have to miss out on having the birthday at the theater just because one of their group couldn't come.
- 7. Do I pay for the number of people I estimate will attend or the final number of guests?
You are only charged for the number of guests who attend the party. Your original booking number is simply an estimate, and we understand that.
- 8. How much notice do you need if I have to cancel?
We just ask that you let us know 48 hours ahead of the birthday booking. You will not be charged as long as you cancel 48 hours before the party. However, if we do not hear from you, we will need to charge you the minimum room rental fee of $50.00. The $50.00 fee covers our costs of having the room ready for you on the proposed date and bringing in a staff person assigned to your party.
- 9. Can we have a tour of the theater during our birthday party?
Yes, you can. We suggest that you do this prior to getting your concessions and watching the movie or after the gifts and cake. We will show you the theaters and the projection booth and give the children a brief rundown on how a movie theatre works (parents can join in too, they are usually really like the tour!). The tour is about 10-15 minutes total. Remember to allow time for the tour when letting parents know the pick up time.
- 10. When should I book my party - how far in advance?
We suggest that you book your party one-month in advance to ensure you have the date you prefer. This is a suggestion only, and we will book parties with only two to three days notice, subject to availability.
- 11. What time should I tell parents to pick up their child?
We suggest that you allot an hour and a half for the movie length. Actual run times of specific films is available a few days before the film opens at the theater, and we can let you know this. Then add the time you will spend on cake and presents, and theater tour if booked, normal time will then be between 2 and 2 and a half hours from start to finish. This is a safe estimate that will have parents arriving either just on time or early. Parents are welcome to wait outside the theater or in the lobby.
- 12. Who will watch our presents and personal items during the movie?
Northtowne Cinemas is not responsible for personal items. We would recommend for safety that you remove all valuables from the room or lobby area before going into the movie. However, at your request we can lock the party during the duration of the movie.
- 13. Can we bring outside food in to our party?
Yes, you can bring all the normal birthday fare. We only ask that you consume the food in the birthday room and not in our auditoriums.
- 14. Do I have to clean up the room or area?
No, that is our job! The benefit of organizing a birthday party at our theater is that they are considerably easier to organize than most parties, and involve no clean up (other than what you choose to take with you), no hassle, and we offer you the added benefit of having your own private party room, that's conveniently not in your home.
